

Hello Educators!

Sturgis Historical Museum - At the Depot: Information for Your Visit

We are so excited about your visit! Here are a few things to keep in mind.

- School groups must be accompanied by a teacher and two other adults.
- Cost is $1 per student and chaperone. Teachers are free.
- Please allow 1 hour and 15 minutes per tour.
- Groups cannot exceed 35 people due to our fire code.
- There is no food or drink allowed in the museum.
- Please avoid using flash photography.
- Upon arrival the Museum Director will greet you and go over rules and procedures.
- Class sizes larger than 8 will be divided into two groups for the tour. Each group will tour a wing of the museum and then trade places.
- Please have your class divided into two groups before you arrive.
- We have several exhibits that include technology. Please remind students they are welcome to use the tablets to find more information, but need to share screen time.
- Some of our exhibits are hands-on, but most may not be touched. Please consult your docent on items that can or cannot be touched.
- Activity booklets for grades K-8 are available at no additional charge. Further instructions will be provided if you elect to use the booklets on your tour.
- Some of our displays will change and you'll see different things each time you visit.
- Please call if you need any accommodations or have any concerns.
- We do provide bathrooms and are wheelchair accessible.
